

Dear Friends of the Bridge Course,

We are so glad that you are here. Here are a few brief principles about how the course is structured to help you care for your friend:

The Bridge discussion groups are primarily designed to draw out those who have not yet made a commitment to Christ. We ask that you please refrain from answering any questions during the discussion time to allow our guests to get their thoughts and questions out in the open.

Join us in prayer for your group, your leaders, and your guest. We have seen the Lord do miraculous things through prayer!

Thanks for your cooperation!

Dear Friends of the Bridge Course,

We are so glad that you are here. Here are a few brief principles about how the course is structured to help you care for your friend:

The Bridge discussion groups are primarily designed to draw out those who have not yet made a commitment to Christ. We ask that you please refrain from answering any questions during the discussion time to allow our guests to get their thoughts and questions out in the open.

Join us in prayer for your group, your leaders, and your guest. We have seen the Lord do miraculous things through prayer!

Thanks for your cooperation!

Dear Friends of the Bridge Course,

We are so glad that you are here. Here are a few brief principles about how the course is structured to help you care for your friend:

The Bridge discussion groups are primarily designed to draw out those who have not yet made a commitment to Christ. We ask that you please refrain from answering any questions during the discussion time to allow our guests to get their thoughts and questions out in the open.

Join us in prayer for your group, your leaders, and your guest. We have seen the Lord do miraculous things through prayer!

Thanks for your cooperation!

Dear Friends of the Bridge Course,

We are so glad that you are here. Here are a few brief principles about how the course is structured to help you care for your friend:

The Bridge discussion groups are primarily designed to draw out those who have not yet made a commitment to Christ. We ask that you please refrain from answering any questions during the discussion time to allow our guests to get their thoughts and questions out in the open.

Join us in prayer for your group, your leaders, and your guest. We have seen the Lord do miraculous things through prayer!

Thanks for your cooperation!